

lers and make a renewed attack on Port Arthur, with the object of sealing the entrance to the port, or, considering the Russian fleet to be practically immobilized by its inferiority, proceed with the landing of troops at the head of the Gulf of Liao Tung. It would not be surprising if the Japanese attempted to invest the fortress of Port Arthur by land.

The latest reports are to the effect that the Japanese fleet is still in sight from Golden Hill.

Gen. Kuropatkin is concentrating his second line of defense between Mukden and Liao Yang. He will have 120,000 men there by April 24th.

BEGINNING TO ADMIT CLAIMS OF JAPANESE

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—Unofficial dispatches received here from Port Arthur repeat that it was the Beograd and not the Strashni, as reported in the official dispatches, which became separated from the rest of the fleet and was sunk by the Japanese torpedo boat destroyers.

Information which has slowly reached St. Petersburg has modified the opinion at first prevailing concerning the original cause of the destruction of the Petropavlovsk. There is gradually developing a disposition to admit the possibility that after all the Japanese torpedo boats may have dropped mines at the entrance to Port Arthur harbor. An official remark to the Associated Press tonight:

"It would be far better if the ship was actually blown up by the enemy's mine instead of a Russian. The latter would be the result of inexcusable carelessness and would properly attract the Emperor's anger. The former, while it would speak volumes for Japanese craftiness, could not really be avoided."

"On dark nights it would be almost impossible for the searchlighting of the batteries to pick up the torpedo boats, however carefully the lights were manipulated."

Even should it finally be established that a Japanese mine destroyed the Petropavlovsk it will not affect the general appreciation of the Vice-Admiral's high qualities. His policy has been thoroughly approved in St. Petersburg, where it is understood that such action would have attracted the Emperor's approval. The Admiral's instructions were to conserve his fleet. It is pointed out that it was his duty to return directly to the harbor on the appearance of a superior force. It could hardly be expected that the Admiral would look out for mines when he had no reason to believe that they had been laid, especially as only a few hours before he had safely steamed over the spot where the Petropavlovsk was sunk.

WIRELESS REPORTS FORBIDDEN BY CZAR

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The Russian Government has given notice that newspaper correspondents using wireless telegraph will be treated as spies and shot.

This notice was served on the State department by Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, today, and it is understood that similar communications were made to all foreign offices.

The text of the communication is as follows: "I am charged by my Government, in order to avoid all possible misunderstanding, to communicate to your excellency that the Lieutenant of my Imperial Majesty in the far East has just made the following declaration:

"In a case in which neutral steamers having on board correspondents who might communicate war news to the enemy by means of perfected apparatus not being yet foreseen by existing conventions, they are arrested near the coast of Kuan Tung or in the zone of operations of the Russian fleet, the correspondents will be looked on as spies, and the steamers furnished with wireless telegraphy seized as prizes of war."

New Wrinkle in War Orders.

This notice opens up an entirely new line of treatment of correspondents. The reference to existing conventions is taken to express the belief of the Russian Government that if wireless telegraphy had been practiced prior to the Hague declaration concerning spies, spies and practices of war would surely have been prohibited even in neutral hands. It happens that some of the leading British newspaper correspondents are making free use of the wireless telegraph transmission of their war news, and it is possible that they will appeal to their Government to define their own status, and to secure an official determination of the question as to whether a neutral on his own ship outside the territorial waters of a belligerent power and without contraband of war aboard can be treated as a spy.

Wireless Telegraph Co. Protests.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The American De Forest Wireless Telegraph company has telegraphed a protest against the attitude of the Russian Government relative to the use of wireless telegraphy by correspondents in the zone of war. The protest states:

"We claim the right under all international laws to use the high seas for peaceful purposes and demand for our operators, who are American citizens, and for our property the full protection of the United States Government."

JAPANESE ARE USING SUBMARINE BOATS

NEW YORK, April 15.—Expressions from St. Petersburg of a belief that the Japanese are using submarine boats in their Port Arthur attacks are given color by a statement credited to a retired naval officer in this city. He declares it to be the only way in which one can account for the succession of disasters met by the Russian ships.

"It is incredible," he said, "that ships which undoubtedly have charts of the mines aboard should be blown up by them. One of the first things Vice-Admiral Makarov did when he reached Port Arthur was to re-survey the harbor and locate the mines."

"What is the sense of these constant bombardments if they are not feints made in order to entice the Russian ships out?" The theories that the Petropavlovsk struck her own mines or that the Japanese planted a mine during a night attack are untenable, and we know that the Japanese use submarines.

"A United States naval officer landed at the wrong dock, apparently an unused wharf, in a Japanese town before the war, and saw a submarine surrounded on three sides by high fences so that it was visible only from the water side. Before he had an opportunity

INSPECT STREAMS FOR UNCLE SAM

General Hydrographic Inspector Murphy on an Official Visit to Utah.

E. C. MURPHY, general hydrographic inspector of the United States Geological Survey, arrived in the city Thursday evening and went yesterday, accompanied by Prof. George L. Swenson of the Government reclamation service, to inspect the streams of the Bear Lake region. After inspecting the northern streams, Mr. Murphy will visit the southern part of the State, and later will go to the Uintah country, spending altogether about three weeks in inspecting the score or more gauging stations in Utah.

These gauging stations, which the Government has established on all the streams of economic value in the country, are presided over by local agents, who twice a day take observations of the surface fluctuations of the streams and record the results obtained. When the station is inspected, as Mr. Murphy is now inspecting the Utah stations, measurements of the velocity and depth are also taken to get the discharge available for storage and utilization, especially the flood discharge for irrigation purposes. In the West the data obtained by these observations are largely valuable in connection with irrigation projects, while in the East they are utilized to compute power available for mills and factories.

Mr. Murphy, as general hydrographic inspector, visits all the gauging stations in the country, numbering about 600, and makes the round trip once in two years. His duties necessitate his traveling almost continuously.

He will be far better if the ship was actually blown up by the enemy's mine instead of a Russian. The latter would be the result of inexcusable carelessness and would properly attract the Emperor's anger. The former, while it would speak volumes for Japanese craftiness, could not really be avoided."

"On dark nights it would be almost impossible for the searchlighting of the batteries to pick up the torpedo boats, however carefully the lights were manipulated."

Even should it finally be established that a Japanese mine destroyed the Petropavlovsk it will not affect the general appreciation of the Vice-Admiral's high qualities. His policy has been thoroughly approved in St. Petersburg, where it is understood that such action would have attracted the Emperor's approval. The Admiral's instructions were to conserve his fleet. It is pointed out that it was his duty to return directly to the harbor on the appearance of a superior force. It could hardly be expected that the Admiral would look out for mines when he had no reason to believe that they had been laid, especially as only a few hours before he had safely steamed over the spot where the Petropavlovsk was sunk.

TOGO IS MENACING HARBOR AND CITY

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—That Vice-Admiral Togo has not given up hope of further damaging the Russian ships now that there is little possibility of their again going to sea, is shown by his bombardment of the harbor yesterday. Unquestionably Togo is aware of the effect of his previous bombardment, and the fact that he has repeated it indicates to the officers here that he believes there is a good chance of a protective hitting a target in order to prevent the Russian harbor or city a high-angle fire is necessary. This is the reason the Japanese have been firing at the harbor since the time of the explosion of the bridge and from there he lowered himself to the deck.

He was swept away by an immense wave and sank to a considerable depth, but succeeded in making a most impressive impression on all foreigners in the war zone. The date of the catastrophe and official information concerning it are not yet obtainable here, and there is much speculation as to how it happened. There was an explosion in the zone of operations of the Russian fleet last Sunday, but the rumors are without confirmation. The telegram adds that Cyril's aide-de-camp, Lieut. Von Kube, perished.

GRAND DUKE CYRIL'S THRILLING ESCAPE

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—A telegram from Berlin and New York yesterday, gives Grand Duke Cyril's account of his escape from death in the disaster to the Petropavlovsk. According to his story, Cyril fell at the rear of the bridge and from there he lowered himself to the deck.

By his own efforts he caught a floating fragment of the Petropavlovsk's steam launch, to which he clung for about ten minutes when he was picked up by the destroyer Bezhubni.

The telegram adds that Cyril's aide-de-camp, Lieut. Von Kube, perished.

MOST PROFOUND EVENT OF THE EASTERN WAR

NEWCHANG, April 15.—The sinking of the Russian battleship Petropavlovsk and the attendant great loss of life at Port Arthur is regarded here as the most profound event of the present war. The news has apparently made a most powerful impression on all foreigners in the war zone. The date of the catastrophe and official information concerning it are not yet obtainable here, and there is much speculation as to how it happened. There was an explosion in the zone of operations of the Russian fleet last Sunday, but the rumors are without confirmation. The telegram adds that Cyril's aide-de-camp, Lieut. Von Kube, perished.

DUKE BETTER, PAINTER LOST, CORRESPONDENT IS MISSING

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—This evening Prince Galtzine repeated his assurance to the Associated Press that the Grand Duke Cyril was better, and that he was with his brother Boris at his headquarters at Liao Yang. His fever has at last disappeared.

The Admiralty has received official information that the celebrated painter of battle scenes was among those lost by the sinking of the Petropavlovsk. The fate of Nicholas Kravtchenko, who was acting as correspondent of the Associated Press at Port Arthur, is still unknown.

JACOB IN SIBERIA WILL BE PROTECTED

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—The statement printed abroad that the United States Ambassador McCormick had been instructed to make representations to the Government of Russia concerning alleged anti-Jewish demonstrations at Easter time in Siberia, has been denied by the Russian official.

Japanese in Siberia will be given facilities to communicate with the United States embassy in the event that they desire to leave. Many of them have elected to remain in consequence of Russia's guarantee of protection.

Slaughter of Chinamen.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—A telegram from Admiral Alexiev from Port Arthur to the Emperor says that from 9:35 o'clock this morning to midday the Japanese fleet, in two divisions, bombarded the fortresses and the town alternately, from the Liao Tshan promontory, firing 185 projectiles.

The Russian squadron, including the battleship Pobieda, repelled from the anchorage by a plunging fire. The batteries also participated.

The losses on both sides were seven Chinese killed and five soldiers and three Chinese wounded.

The Russian warships sustained no damage and there was no loss of life on them.

Swapping Condolences.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, having formally expressed to the President the condolence of his Government upon the accident sustained by the Missouri, the President, in turn, personally expressed his deepest sympathy for the loss sustained by Russia in the death of Admiral Makarov and the sinking of the Petropavlovsk.

Japanese Troops Repulsed.

LONDON, April 15.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Standard sends a rumor to the effect that Vice-Admiral Togo's fleet escorted a Japanese landing of troops to the westward of the Yalu river. When 2,000 men had landed the Russian troops, which were lying concealed, suddenly attacked them, driving them back to the ships with heavy losses in men and guns.

A DUTY WOMEN OWE THEMSELVES.

"Good actions speak louder than words," so too, does the use of many thousands of women during a third of a century speak louder than mere claims not backed by a guarantee of some kind. This is the reason why the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription offer $500 reward for women who can not be cured. Such a remarkable offer is founded on a long record of cures of the diseases and weaknesses, peculiar to women. If there is an invalid woman, suffering from female weakness, prostrated, or falling of womb, or from leucorrhea, or from any of the many diseases of women, who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription without complete success, the proprietors of that medicine would like to hear from such person—and it will be to her advantage to write and state in perfect good faith, a reward of $500 for any case of the above maladies which they cannot cure. No other medicine for women is possessed of the unparalleled curative properties that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has in making such an offer.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, at their convent, "Our Lady of the Woods," Carthage, Ohio, are grateful to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, just tell him, "There's nothing just as good." He says so because he hopes to make a better profit but his own mixtures have not stood the test of long experience and success than Doctor Pierce's medicines have. There are many patent medicines advertised as tonics, contain large quantities of alcohol. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does not contain a particle of alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—sent on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps. Judge Holt today directed the Guaranty Trust company to turn over to Receiver Taft and Miller of the suspended firm of D. J. Sulley & Co., the warehouse receipts for the 208 bales of cotton and the cash
